Three terms are expiring, Phil VanHorn, Jerry Jessen, and Ken McCann – I called and spoke to Jerry Jessen and he assured me that all three members would like to be reappointed to this Board. There are no term limits on this board.

Dear Commissioners,

Thank you for taking the time to review my application for the City/County Frontier Park Improvement Joint Powers Board position. I believe my over 30 years of volunteer experiences with Cheyenne Frontier Days along with my time as the Contract Acts Chairman provides me the insight to serve on the board. While the City/County Frontier Park Improvement Joint Powers Board might not be in the fore front of boards, the functions it provides is critical to keeping Cheyenne Frontier Days the premier western experience that it is. The ability to raise bonds and financing will allow "The Daddy of Them All" to continue to modernize facilities and the grounds while enhancing the customers experience in Cheyenne.

It would be very rewarding to be a part of this board and to help facilitate the continued economic impact of Cheyenne Frontier Days.

Sincerely,

PAT MOFFETT
