Attachments:

Dear Honorable Diane Humphrey, Jeff Ketcham and Jack Knudson,

My Grandmother, Margaret Augusta Stevenson Loshbaugh, will be 95 years old on July 12, 2005. My grandmother is 95 years of Cheyenne living history. She has lived in the same home for over 50 years, watched Cheyenne grow from a country rural town to the sprawling community it is today. She and her family and my Grandfather built many homes and ran the early taxi service. She knows so much about Cheyenne and how it grew.

On July 10, 2005, her family and friends will honor her with a celebration at Little America, from 1 - 4 p.m. There be children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, cousins and in-laws in attendance. We would like you to attend. I know that your calenders fill up months in advance and Sundays are sacred, please accept this invitation.

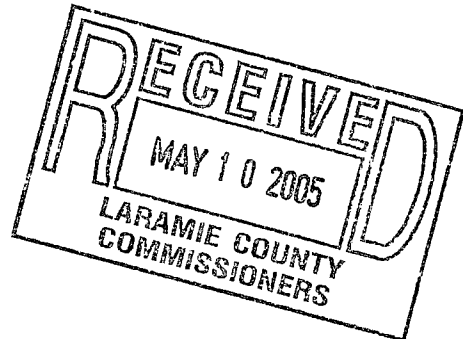

I would like to request that the Town of Cheyenne declare that July 12, 2005 be Margaret Augusta Stevenson Loshbaugh Day. Please let me know how I can help make this a reality.

You may communicate with me via this email address or

Glenda Webb
55992 Sunnyslope Drive
Yucca Valley, CA 92284

760-365-3819

I eagerly await your response.
Thank you for considering my request and invitation.

Val,

Please send a RSVP - I cannot attend.

Maybe Jeff.

Then have a resolution naming July 12 as her day.

Thanks

Margaret Augusta Stevenson Loshbaugh, was born in Cheyenne, Wyoming on July 12, 1910, the second child of Sterling Price Stevenson and Dollie Pagett Stevenson who were married in Cheyenne in 1906. Her brothers, Sterling Stevenson and Clarence Stevenson are both deceased. Her older sister, Roberta Louise, died at the age of 13.

Online Degree Programs

She lived in Huntington Park, California from 1920 to 1926. She attended the old Corlett School in Cheyenne and graduated from the old Central High School in 1928. She married her childhood sweetheart, Oren Leslie Loshbaugh, in 1933 in Kimball, Nebraska. His parents drove them to Kimball and they returned to her new in-laws home to live. They are the parents of five children. Roberta Louise Lucas (deceased in 1985), Bruce Loshbaugh of Cheyenne, David Loshbaugh of Aurora, Colorado, Carolyn Loshbaugh of Denver, Colorado and James Loshbaugh (deceased 2005). The three eldest were born in Cheyenne and the two youngest were born in Washington State where they lived during World War II. They returned to Cheyenne in 1952, living in her current home since 1953. Mr. Loshbaugh died in 1985, they were married for 52 years.

Mrs. Loshbaugh is a member of the Mizpah Chapter of #36 Order of Eastern Star, joining in 1930. She has belonged to Magic City Lodge #5, 100F since 1929, and is a past Noble Grand. For over thirty years she has been a member of the Women's Club and has headed the Arts group of the club during that time.

After his retirement, Mr. & Mrs. Loshbaugh traveled all over the western United States, towing their trailer. They were able to visit family and friends. Their tours took them to majestic locations no longer accessible to motor vehicles. One of her favorite locations is Death Valley, CA, in the spring. She loves the flowers and fauna of the desert. They are charter members of the local chapter of the Good Sam Club and were active members until 1985.

Mrs. Loshbaugh has seen Cheyenne grow and grow to it's present size. Her extended family contributed to the growth of Cheyenne with a barbershop, Justice of the Peace, Post electrician at Warren Air Base, Stevenson Electric Company, building contractor and carpenter. Mrs. Loshbaugh is Cheyenne's living history.

Today her extended family lives in primarily in California, Oregon, Washington, Texas, and Colorado. She is the grandmother to 15 grandchildren and stepgrandchildren. She is the great-grandmother to over 20. At the planned celebration for her 95th birthday she will meet her four great-great grandchildren.. One great-great granddaughter is named Cheyenne.

For her 95th birthday her family will gather and celebrate her. Many of her nieces and nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren and cherished friends gather to celebrate the joy of her life in each of their lives.

Hi Glenda,
I work for the Laramie County Attorney and I received your email regarding your grandmother from the Commissioners office a few days ago. I'm trying to do a Resolution in honor of July 12th, 2005 being declared her day. However, if you could just email a short history of your grandma, it sure would help to put it in resolution style. Right now I don't have enough to put in there. Just email anything that you believe would be pertinent to this special woman's very special day. I need to have it done and to the Commissioner's office by noon on June 29th to put it on the agenda for their July 5th meeting at 3:30. So just email anything you think will be helpful and I'll be glad to get this accomplished. I will do two originals of this Resolution when it is done and have the County Clerk send you one in the mail when it is signed by the Commissioners. If you have any questions you can contact me at (307) 633-4370 and my email address is marephet@yahoo.com. Thank you! Marianne Phetteplace
