A Tradition of Success

Fremont Motor Company, a family-owned business with deep roots in Wyoming, continues to thrive under the leadership of Arin Emmert, a fourth-generation car dealer who has inherited the passion and dedication that has long defined our company. Founded in 1938 by Clyde Guschewsky, the company was later nurtured by James Guschewsky, then Chuck Guschewsky, whose personal vision and leadership saw the company's growth and expansion. Today, we honor the legacy of Chuck Guschewsky, who passed away in 2021, leaving behind a legacy of excellence and community service.

Arin Emmert, a 2007 graduate of Creighton University with a B.S.B.A. in entrepreneurial management and a minor in Spanish, brings a fresh perspective and a dynamic approach to the business. Her journey in the automotive industry began at the age of 17, evolving from answering phones to becoming the CEO in 2021. Her experience includes working with Toyota Motor Sales and managing various roles within our family's dealerships before taking the helm of the company.

Under Arin's leadership, Fremont Motor Company oversees 15 locations in Wyoming, representing a range of brands including Chevrolet, Chrysler, Dodge, Fiat, Ford, GMC, Honda, Jeep, Ram, Toyota, and Volkswagen. Her commitment to continuous learning and identifying new ways to expand the company has not only driven our success but also fostered a workplace environment where team members can achieve professional heights they never thought possible.

Fremont Motor Company is more than just a car dealership. We are a team dedicated to making a difference in our communities. Our commitment to social responsibility is evident through various community activities, charities, and nonprofit organizations. We believe in giving back, from sponsoring sports teams to providing meals to children in local schools. Our philosophy of trust and growth extends beyond our business operations to our state, our employees, and the people we serve.
