or standards may result in revocation of any issued permit. Laramie County Fireworks Sales Permits. Further, the CFRS provides that violation of such restrictions Laramie County Commissioners may place reasonable restrictions or standards upon the issuance of a The Laramie County Consumer Fireworks Retail Sales Regulations (CFRS) provide that the Board oť

Sales regulations as well as any applicable law or regulation, state, local or federal and, the following restrictions and standards: This permit is conditioned upon compliance with the existing Laramie County Consumer Fireworks Retail onto the property of the fireworks business. on, any road right-of-way, using a bullhorn, waving flags or engaging in any activity to direct people That no agent, owner, employee or representative of a fireworks sales permit shall enter, be in or only from the immediate property of the respective fireworks building location, not from other buildings are acceptable.) The sound cannot exceed 80 dB at the border of the property. locations on the property nor any elevated platform or structure. (Speakers on the roof edge of Use of amplified sound, i.e. bullhorn or other method: Such sound may be projected or emanate verbally, by conduct or other method fireworks business operations, their employees or customers, no matter where engaged, whether harassment or conduct which is reasonably likely to disturb or interfere with the operation of othe No agent, owner, employee or representative of a fireworks sales permit may engage in any