RE: Library Board Appointment Recommendation
DATE: May 14, 2024

Dear Chairman Lovett:

A current Library Board seat is coming to term on June 30, 2024. This seat has been filled by Steven Leafgreen since a previous board member resigned in June 2022. Steven has contributed positively and competently to the Library Board and the Library Board of Directors recommends he be appointed again to this seat.

Steven Leafgreen is a proven leader in the community. Professionally, for the last fourteen years he's been at Western Vista Credit Union, the last seven as their CEO. In addition to the two years where he has served on the Library Board of Directors, he has been the Board President for Wyoming Capital Access and the past chair of the Greater Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, he has served on various other local and national boards during times of opportunity, challenge, and transition. He is also a proven advocate for our library as he has served on the Laramie County Library Foundation Board of Directors for several years and is a past president.

Attached you will find the updated resume for Steven Leafgreen who has expressed interest in being re-appointed to the Laramie County Library System Board of Directors.

Thank you for your consideration of the Board's request.
