Subject: RE: Laramie County Library System Board of Directors Vacancy

Categories: board

Good morning Carey,

As you are aware, current board member Sharon Fain asked that I submit an application for the Library Board. I have worked with Sharon for a number of years as well as with her husband at the Chamber.

My interest in the Library Board stems from my life long interest in reading and as a patron of various library systems since I was a child. I have been a patron of the Laramie County Library since moving to Cheyenne in 1989 if I remember correctly. Prior to moving to Cheyenne, was a long time patron of the Platte County Library in Wheatland. I generally have 1 to 3 books checked out from the Library at any one time and currently have 2 that I am working through.

I have been fortunate in my career and personal life and I believe the opportunities afforded by the library system played a significant role in my success. I am a firm believer in returning something to the community in return for what the community has provided me as an individual and to my family. Community focus is also a large part of what we stress in my business as well and the partners and staff in my firm tend to exceed over a 1,000 hours of time committed to various organizations in the communities we live and work in on an annual basis.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Rob Dickerson

RE: Consideration of Laramie County Library System Board Appointments
FY20

Library board members Khale Lenhart and Kevin Guille are completing their second terms on the Laramie County Library System (LCLS) Board of Directors as of June 30, 2019. As per Wyoming statute § 18-7-103(b) "A director may be appointed for two (2) consecutive terms and shall not be eligible for reappointment until two (2) years after the second term expires." In addition, LCLS board member Joe Bonds resigned in January 2019. Thus there are two vacant LCLS board positions as of July 1, 2019. There is one appointment needed to complete the last year of Mr. Bond's term that expires June 30, 2020.

Attached you will find the Laramie County Board Application Forms, letters of interest and resumes for the six individuals who have expressed interest in being appointed to the LCLS Board of Directors. It is an outstanding group of highly qualified citizens.

The Board had a difficult time making decisions among these candidates in creating a prioritized list to forward to you in recommendation, as all have good qualities and backgrounds that would be beneficial on a board. The recommended applicants will bring qualities to the board that will be needed in the coming three years and beyond. Expertise in finance, connections to the military and small business, and expertise in public communications will be important as the library plans strategically for the anticipated growth in our community.

Below is a prioritized list of recommended applicants to fill the three terms starting July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2022:

1. Robert Dickerson
2. Elizabeth Dillow
3. Will Dinneen

Thank you for your consideration of the requests made by the current Laramie County Library System Board of Directors.
