A motion was made by Vice Chairman Malm, seconded by Trustee Thompson, that this agenda item be approved. The motion passed on a 5-0 vote.

Reports

2. 4-H Educator

21 - 149

Kristy Nagy - Livestock Education Committee, planning sheep and goat clinics. There will be a horse clinic on May 24. The Youth Quality Assurance classes are continuing. Topics are age appropriate and cover caring for and housing livestock, herdsmanhip, weight gain, nutrition, vaccinations, etc.

3. FFA Advisors

21 - 150

Joe Allen, East High Advisor - The FFA Development sessions have been held at the State Fairgrounds in Douglas. FFA Converge will be held at the Archer Complex the week of April 5.

The FFA Livestock Sale had 52 lots available, 45 animals were sold. Most of the animals went to Laramie County kids. The livestock was produced by local breeders.

FFA members from Central and East participated with Cent$ible Nutrition, Master Gardeners Gov. and Mrs. Gordon in the "Grow a Little More" project to encourage homegrown garden produce.

Tagging of FFA animals will be done in the next 1 ½ months.

The FFA Livestock Sale will most likely be held at the Archer Complex again this year.

4. Staff
