Reports

2. 4-H Educator 21 - 257

4-H Educator, Absent

3. FFA Advisors 21 - 259

FFA Advisors.

Joe Allen, East High FFA Advisor; FFA is heavy into Fair Preparation for livestock now. Tagging has been completed on all Market livestock. They ran out of both goat and lamb tags during the initial tagging. Numbers appear to be up in both lambs and goats. Show Down in Cheyenne is this month at the Archer Complex Event Center. The Kiwanis FFA Livestock sale will be held at the Wyoming Hereford Ranch Event Center this year.

Brian Cox, Pine Bluffs FFA Advisor; Recalled the challenges of 202 Fair is glad to see we are moving ahead with a full-fledged fair this year. He proposed adding a Top 5 overall competition for beef this year. Top five market beef animals from FFA and 4-H would compete to be one of the top five Market Beef animals at the Fair. An individual has offered to purchase the banners.

Discussion followed. Due to the absence of Kristy Nagy, 4-H Educator, no decision was made. The item was postponed until the July meeting.

4. Staff*21 - 260Nicholle Watkins, Fair Manager

As of June 7th, they have received 1001 entries from 116 exhibitors. Most livestock entries will come in during June. The entry deadline is June 30th. Approximately 115 people attended the Fair kickoff and the Fair Ambassadors Recognition dinner. Superintendents and volunteers were recognized as well.
