Joe Allen, East High FFA Advisory

FFA Advisors, Kristy Nagy, Nicholle Watkins and Dawn Sanchez met to discuss ideas for possible improvements to the fair.

National FFA Convention was held in Minneapolis, several Wyoming teams made the trip to Convention, bringing home several medal awards in multiple disciplines.

Tommy Cress, Central High FFA Advisor

Echoed Mr. Allen's comments about Wyoming teams at the National Convention.

Brian Cox, Pine Bluffs High School FFA Advisor

Commented on the length of the Fair. How can the schedule be condensed to shorten the number of days the fair runs between CFD, State Fair and School beginning?

Additional discussion occurred concerning the above question.

4. Staff21 - 515

Nicholle Watkins, Fair Manager

The length of the fair is largely dictated by the large number of animals and birds we have. The poultry show could be a 2 day show if the judges would ask members to show the birds instead of doing in cage judging.

Work has begun on the 2022 fair schedule. While she is at the Rocky Mountain Fair Conference in Billings, Montana she will begin looking for midway entertainment for the 2022 fair.

Fair Ambassador applications will be available December 1st.

Proposed Fair Book changes have been sent out to the Superintendents.

The meeting adjourned at 630 PM.
